

---

Terminal Code elaborated by GAZ-SYSTEM (formerly Polskie LNG S.A.) - an acting natural gas liquefaction system operator, is an operations and maintenance manual serving as rules and regulations governing the provision of regasification service and additional services.

Currently, the second edition of the Terminal Code is under preparation. All comments and suggestions submitted during the market consultation process undergo analysis prior to publication of the final version of the Terminal Code.

Terminal Code – currently applicable version